

THE MID-ATLANTIC SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Julien Benichou, Music Director

SEASON FINALE: “Made in America”

With World-Renowned Guest Soloist

Stefan Jackiw, Violinist

Conversation with the Maestro

1 hour before each performance

Barber: Adagio

Mendelssohn: Violin Concerto In E Minor
Stefan Jackiw, Violin

Dvorak: New World Symphony

Thursday, April 28 2011 - 7:30 PM

*Easton Church of God, Easton, MD

Saturday, April 30, 2011 - 7:30 PM

*Mariner's Bethel Church, Ocean View, DE

Sunday, May 1, 2011 - 3:00 PM

*Community Church, Ocean Pines, MD

Tickets: $35.00 (Adults)

$15.00 (Students)

$5.00 (Under 12)

For information and tickets call
410-289-3440 or 1-888-846-8600

Gateway to the New World: New York City, Where Dvorak's New World Symphony Was Written

For Venue Directions & Soloist Biography, visit www.midatlanticsymphony.org

Mid-Atlantic Symphony Orchestra concerts are supported by grants from The National Endowment for the Arts, The Maryland State Arts Council, The Talbot County Arts Council, the Worcester County Arts Council, The Community Foundation of the Eastern Shore, The Carl M. Freeman Foundation, The Joshua M. Freeman Foundation and the Quiet Resorts Charitable Foundation.